The gifts of the earth that engage our senses invite us to reflect on the presence of the Sacred in our lives. Since the beginning of time, wine has been part of the ceremonies and celebrations of various religions, and people have recognized the connections between wine, human experience and the Divine. Tom Harpur, Episcopal priest and author of The Spirituality of Wine notes in reference to wine that 'No other agricultural pursuit from the dawn of time has more truly portrayed, and at the same time sacramentally conveyed, the essence of the deepest spiritual realities of our lives.'

In this retreat we will sample a variety of wines as we explore the spirituality of wine and consider its relationship to our experience of the Sacred.

Thursday, November 9, 2017
6:30-9:00 pm in Brioschi Hall
